Current Program Schedule

Spring 2014
The Richardson History of Psychiatry Research Seminar
Convenes on the 1st & 3rd Wednesdays from September through May
2:00 PM Baker Tower Conference Room F-1200

January 15
No Lecture – American Psychoanalytic Meeting

February 5
Joseph J. Fins, M.D., F.A.C.P., Weill Cornell Medical College
"Daniel Patrick Moynihan and the Defense of Academic Medicine"

February 19
Carl Schoonover, Ph.D., Axel Laboratory, Columbia University
"Visualizing Neural Structure: Historical Development and Contemporary Practice"

March 5
Nathan Kravis, M.D., Weill Cornell Medical College
"Embedded and couched: recumbent speech in historical perspective"

March 19
Edward Brown, M.D., Brown University
"François Leuret: The Last Moral Therapist"

April 2
Max Fink, M.D., Stonybrook University Medical School
"The Creation of Catatonia, its Co-option in Schizophrenia, and its Revival: Failure of Obeisance to Kraepelin"

April 16
Alexandra Bacopoulos-Viau, Ph.D., New York University
"From the ‘writing cure’ to the ‘talking cure’: Revisiting the discovery of the unconscious"

May 7
Sabine Arnaud, Ph.D., Max Planck Institute für Wissenschaftsgeschichte
"Deafness, Norms, and the Distribution of Expertise in the Late Nineteenth Century"

May 21
Akihito Suzuki, Ph.D, School of Economics, Keio University
Eric T. Carlson Memorial Lecture: Grand Rounds, Uris Auditorium
"Madness, Marriage, and Migration: Eugenics and Japanese Society"

Richardson Seminar, Room f1190
"Modernism and Mental Illness in Early Twentieth-Century Tokyo"

* PLEASE NOTE: Space is limited. Attendance by permission only.